Woodside

At least one boy in Woodside has his lucky star. Thayer Messer, 10-year-old son of Nat Messser, who is occuping the Abecassis place, went with his parents to the Menlo Park circus last Saturday. His father gave him 50 cents to spend for peanuts, lemonade and other circus accessories, but Thayer put down the whole sum for a chance on the Shetland pony that was being raffled. The speculation did not meet the approval of his parents, so Thayer went without his circus peanuts and lemonade. When the drawing came off Thayer's ticket won the pony, which he now rides about Woodside, absolutely convinced that in financial matters it's the young blood that wins.

Mrs. F. E. Abecassis is still in Bavaria. When she left here a year ago with Mr. Abecassis, hoping that the long sea trip through the canal and across the Atlantic would be of benefit to his health, it was expected that they would return by this time. But with Mr. Abecasisss' death a short time ago her plans have been changed and she is staying with friends there without any date set for her return.

The Alexander Fields are back in Woodside after all. Earlier in the spring it was reported that they would not return this year owing to the difficulty of keeping help in the house at this place, so far away from the movies. But they finally found a Chinese cook, who on condition that a new house be built for him to live in, and other improvements be made about the place, agreed to stay with them through the summer.

If the acquisition of new automobiles is a sign of prosperity, then Woodside is looking up. Four new machines have just put in an appearance. Miss May Huddart and Mrs. Joe Ross have new coupes, Mr. Craven has a new Overland and Harry Nikodemus a new Essex.

Stanford MacDonald started Tuesday morning wih his parns for an automobile trip to Los Angeles.

Woodside residents are interested in watching the development of the new residence district just recently opened facing the Canyada road and called Toyon Knolls. This is a section of the old C. A. Hooper tract lying directly opposite McCann's "Bubbling Wells Farm." Roads have bene opened through the tract and two nice houses are in course of construction. One of the houses is being built by John Wilson of San Francisco, who spent a part of last summer at the McCann place and became so enamored of our climate and scenery that he needs must have a place of his own. Mrs. O. C. Smith of Redwood City is agent for Toyon Knolls.

The pupils of the Woodside school are hoping for some additional school yard equipment for next year. Last summer the trustees put in a slide and swing and other equipment for the younger pupils and a horizontal ladder for the older boys. This year the boys are hoping for a horizontal bar and some jumping standards.

In the hygiene examination given to the fifth grade the question was asked, "What are three uses of food?" the expected answer being, "To heat, strengthen and build up the body." One youngster had his own opinion on the matter and answered as follows: "Three uses of food are, for picnics, for dinners and when you are hungry." Not altogether wrong at that.

EAGLES' INSTALLATION

On last Tuesday evening at San Mateo a most unusual event occurred in Eagledom, it being the night for the installation of the officers elect of San Mateo Aerie No. 440, F. O. E., and also the installation of the officers elect of the associated aeries of San Mateo county, which by coincidence chose San Mateo for the occasion.

After the joint installation and the respective business meetings San Mateo Aerie entertained with a banquet, characteristic with its hospitality. Each aerie in the county was fully represented. Those delegated to represent the various aeries at the recent state convention at Santa Cruz reported its doings. In the competitive drill for drum corps at Santa Cruz San Mateo county's drum corps carried off first honors with 99 per cent. The Eagles are justly proud of their drum corps.

County News Notes

The regular traffic matinee in the court of Justice Ray Griffin here last Monday featured a return engagement, as the theatrical people would say, of P. Sweeny, truck driver of San Francisco. Sweeny does a neat specialty entitled "Reckless Driving," according to the judge. He was fined $10 on the charge three weeks ago and will appear in court again today for bumping his truck into an automobile driven by Gus Zanoni on the Alpine road near La Honda last Saturday.

Thomas Parsons, also a San Francisco truck driver, contributed a few words and $20 to the program of Monday. He was arrested by Traffic Custodian James Logan for driving an overloaded truck on the highway through this city.

Price of San Francisco, according to a compaint filed in the superior court here last Monday against the United Railroads of San Francisco, now the Market Street Railway. Price alleges that the bumping was caused by negligent operation of the car. The bump occurred as Price attempted to cross the company's tracks at the cemetery entrance. According to the customary methods of regular train wreckers, Collins began operations on the inside of one of the coaches, it was reported. At South San Francisco he became so peeved at the service that he broke windows and defied the train men. He is being held on a charge of disturbing the peace.

O'Keefe of this city. Mrs. Truffelli was also hit on her head by a "heavy boot" belonging to and swung by Truffelli, it is alleged. Aside from these endeavors her husband refused to take exercise in the nature of regular employment, but spent his time and her money experimenting with strong liquor, it is alleged by Mrs. Truffelli. The couple was married in San Francisco in 1914 and separated in this city last August. Mrs Truffelli asks for the custody of a son, Antone, six years old, and alimony of $50 a month.

—C—

Eddie Poli, truck driver of Gilroy, arrested here last Monday by Eddie McAuliffe, popular night officer of the RedwoodCity police department, paid a fine of $300 for violation of the local Volstead ordinance when brought before Recorder Albert Mansfield. Eddie, the officer, found 300 gallons of wine on the truck of Eddie, the driver, which was destined for the Rainbow Inn, it is alleged by the police. What became of the wine? We know that, too. Police Chief C. L. Collins dumped it into the bay last Tuesday afternoon. And the fish having such a wet time all the while, even without 300 gallons of Gilroy wine.

—C—

Eric Larson, driver for the Peterson Lumber Company at La Honda, was removed to a San Francisco hospital last Saturday night, according to police reports, after his truck had collided with two other machines on the La Honda road. Larson first collided with an auto driven by Frank Alves of San Gregorio and later with an automobile hearse belonging to the undertaking firm of Julius Godeau, San Francisco. Seeking Larson on warrants from the court of Justice Ray Griffin, officers learned that he had received serious internal injuries in the second accident.

In staging a one-man riot in the restaurant Herlick announced that he was "a prophet of God" and that he had been sent by divine command to visit vengeance upon a sinful world.

John J McGrath, postmaster at San Mateo, whose removal was threatened three weeks ago, will be retained in office, according to reports from San Mateo. FOUR CHANGES IN LOCAL STAFF OF TEACHERS FOR NEXT YEAR

Miss Nelson Resigns After Thirty Years a Member of Redwood Public School Faculty

School closed yesterday and with its closing four of the teachers severed their connections with the institution, namely, Miss Esther Torello, Miss Virginia Manning, Miss Sallie Nelson and Miss Dorothy Denny.

We believe that more than passing mark should be given to the resignation of two of these ladies. Miss Sallie Nelson has rounded out thirty years of service in the local school department. Rain or shine she was always at her post of duty. Miss Nelson has kept young with her children, although two generations of families have come within her management she has had the welfare of the child at heart and has meant as much, and perhaps more, to the second generation as she did to the first. There are very few teachers who have the record of thirty years in the same school. The trustees and principal wanted Miss Nelson to continue with her work, but she felt that she had served long enough and so asked to be retired. She will continue to make her home here with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Rice. Redwood City has always been her home and we hope it will ever be her home. We want to pay this tribute to Miss Nelson. She was one of the best and most faithful teachers Redwood City has ever had.

Another teacher to be missed is Miss Torello. She has held the position of eighth grade teacher for several years and has won the esteem and affection of all who came in contact with the school. She has been a tireless worker and has given a good account of her stewardship here. Miss Torello and Miss Alma Blake, a former San Mateo county teacher who is now employed in Oakland, will leave soon for New York, where they will remain for several months. After taking in the sights of the east they will pursue futher educational work. It is to be hoped that Miss Torello may return to the department after her year of rest.

Miss Manning has been in Redwood City for a year and her departure is regretted. She feels that she would like to be in a larger department and as her work here has been first class she will probably secure a position in one of the cities of this section.

Miss Denny leaves because of the closing of the kindergarten in which she has taught this year. She is a charming young lady and will be missed by the many friends she has made here.

The places made vacant by the resignations have been filled as follows: Miss Oma Leterich, who was graduated from Stanford in 1921 and has for the past year been teaching in William Warren School, Menlo Park, will be in an upper grade. Miss Leterich comes from Williams and was registered in the mathematics department at Stanford.

Miss Clair Locker, a local girl who was graduated from the San Jose State Teachers' College in 1921 and for the past year teacher at Purissima, near Halfmoon Bay, will be in the primary department.

Miss Ethel Wrigley, a graduate of the San Jose State Teachers' College, will be in the upper grades. Miss Wrigley's home is in Eureka and for the past year she has been principal of the Grizzly Bluff school in Humboldt county.

School will reopen Monday, August 21.

DOCTOR SAMUEL SHORTRIDGE

We have read many times of Dr. Samuel Johnson and have been impressed with the wisdom and greatness of Doctor Sam. We now introduce to you another Dr. Samuel. This time it is our old friend and fellow citizen, Dr. Samuel M. Shortridge of California, U. S. A., and Washington, D. C. Last week the National University Law School conferred upon Senator Shortridge the title of Doctor of Laws.

We are pleased that this honor has been conferred upon the junior senator from California. He is in every way worthy of this distinction. When we take into consideration the fact that Senator Shortridge did not have the benefits of a college education we can see that he must be very proud of this degree. All of the fame that has come to Senator Shortridge has come because of his infinite capacity for hard work. He is an example of what hard work and determination will accomplish.

JULY 4TH CELEBRATION

The Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce and Civic Associations is planning a regional celebration on the Fourth of July, to be staged on the San Carlos speedway. Plans for the event are being worked out on an elaborate scale, with a program of such diversity and ceaseless activity as to provide a full day's entertainment for people of all ages

The idea of communities joining together for holiday celebrations is a good one. It means, as in this case, that more elaborate affairs can be arranged than when each community undertakes the matter independently. It also gives the individuals within each participating community opportunity to get better acquainted with the people from the neighboring towns.

To the people who are not attracted by such events as automobile races, for which the San Carlos speedway was built primarily, this celebration will provide a motive for visiting the place and seeing the great structure, which is itself an object of individual interest on the peninsula.

A further reason why all communities on the peninsula should work to make the Fourth of July celebration at San Carlos a success is the objective of the celebration. It is hoped to raise from the holiday festival a fund of $30,000 which will be devoted to the peninsula publicity program, from which every community in the peninsula region will benefit. The more each community does for the Fourth of July celebration, the more the celebration will do for the community in turn.

Let's all join together in this intercommunity celebration and make it a banner success.

SOME IMPRESSIONS

We heard some boys talking about caddying the other day and we were surprised at the amount they could make in a day. It's great for the boys to make so much out in the open air, and at work that is both healthful and interesting. We believe the ones who pay the caddy would get a great deal more out of the grand old game if they carried their own bundle of sticks around the course. To be sure if they were playing single handed they need a caddy, for it's worth a dollar to have the average American boy walk two miles with you.

Last Saturday evening we climbed into our little old boat and rode down to Stanford University to hear and see "Faust." This was the third of a series of open air operas given at the university. The seats were hard, but the performance was wonderful. Fortunately we had "boned up" on the plot of "Faust" so we were in a position to know what it was all about. The scenic effects were extremely fine, even Fair Luna lent her benign countenance and silvery beams to enhance the fairylike charm. The main characters were wonderful in their several parts and the chorus of Stanford students added greatly to the tout ensemble. We can honestly recommend the production to our friends. "Faust" is to be repeated in the big football field tonight. If you haven't attended one of the performances go down this evening, but be sure and read the story first and take a sofa cushion for good measure.

This is being written on June 14, Flag Day. Everywhere we went today we saw your flag and my flag floating on the breeze. My, but it is a beautiful sight, "with its ripples of red and of white and its heaven of blue." Not only is it beautiful, but the things it stands for lend it a greater charm than it might otherwise have. Every boy should be taught to doff his cap as he passes old glory. Some of us did do that when we were at war. We should do so more wilingly and more cheerfully now that we are at peace. The following is a piece we believe you should read:

Your Flag and My Flag

Your flag and my flag and how it flies today
In your land and my land, and half the world away,
Rose-red and blood-red the stripes
forever gleam,
Snow-white and soul-white, the good forefathers' dream,
Sky-blue and true-blue, with stars to gleam aright—
The gloried guidon of the day, a shelter throught the night!

Your flag and my flag, to every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat, and fifers shilly pipe.
Your flag and my flag, a blessing in the sky;
Your hope and my hope, it never hid a lie.
Home-land and far-land, and half
the world around,
Old Glory hears our glad salute and ripples to the sound!

Your flag and my flag, and Oh! how much it holds—
Your land and my land, secure within its folds.
Your heart and my heart beat quicker
at the sight;
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed—red and blue and white!
The One Flag, the Great Flag, the Flag for me and you,
Glorified all else beside—the Red,
the White, the Blue!

—Wilbur D. Nesbit.

PORTIA OF CABINET PORTRAYS JOHNSON

Calls Him Outstanding Figure of West

Los Angeles (Special)—Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, of Los Angeles, assistant Attorney General of the United States, and the second woman who ever held that important post, in a recent letter from Washington to former United States Senator Frank P. Flint, gives some interesting observations of the career of Senator Hiram W. Johnson at the national capitol.

As a member of the staff of the Attorney General, Mrs. Willebrandt is in very close relation to the inner circle of the national administration.

MABEL WALKER WILLEBRANDT

Her letter to Senator Flint follows
My dear Senator Flint—

The home papers have brought frequent news to the effect that you are conducting a fine campaign for Senator Johnson's reelection. I certainly hope our own Los Angeles County will roll up as big a vote for him as it did for President Harding and Senator Shortridge in the 1920 campaign, for our local needs are just as much at stake now.

When I was at home, and 3000 miles away from Washington, I used to wonder whether Senator Johnson's fearless stand on big issues, according to what he believed to be right and for the best interest of our State, irrespective of the opinions of others of the party, had not cost him power and effectiveness, but I am here to tell you that almost a year's residence at the seat of activity has removed all question on that score. I learn on every side that the Senator always plays the political game squarely, with both hands above the table, and with such fearless adherence to his convictions that it commands respect from his colleagues, whether they agree with his conclusions or not.

This was particularly exemplified by the result of his stand on the Four Power Pact. That did not in any way lessen the confidence and the respect of the Administration for him. This Administration is made up of too big men, with too much political vision, to resent such an honest difference of opinion. Furthermore, everyone knows Senator Johnson has been from the very first for disarmament, and has stood loyally by every other important administrative measure, except that.

I think the thing that has pleased me most to see is that Senator Johnson is such an effective fighter that he keeps California "on the map." When he goes after a thing for our State he gets it. It would be disastrous for the business interests of California to lose him. Of course, everyone at home knows that his fight on the tariff has given our citrus, almond, walnut, olive, raisin, and bean growers greater protection than they ever have had under former tariff laws. Few people at home, however, realize the time and energy and fatiguing labor put into the fight for every cent in these tariff schedules. Every Eastern importer of these products fights our interests, and they keep immense lobbies here all the time. Senator Johnson has "bucked the line hard" steadily and consistently, and results speak for themselves.

The centers of population and big business interests are so far East that unless there is a mighty aggressive man on the front line for us the Congressional tendency is to pigeonhole our Western interests. That will never happen as long as we keep Senator Johnson here.

I have by no means always agreed personally with every stand Senator Johnson has taken—at least at the time he took it, although many of his apparently unpopular positions have had a distinctly prophetic element, and general acceptance has later followed.

My interest is not occasional by personal friendship, for I have met him only a few times, but my pride and loyalty have been commanded by what I have here observed, that he is the outstanding figure of the West, sometimes feared, but always respected by those who know him, one in whose leadership and vigorous advocacy of California interests every Californian may take pride.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

Fathers' and graduation night, in the language of the high school fraternity, was a screaming success. It was the crowning feature in closing the two year tenure of Mrs. Mary E. Quinn's administration as the first president of the Parent-Teacher Association of San Carlos. As in the old days before world war and woman suffrage, the fathers took their natural place, that of temporarily coming back into their own—they were the distinguished guests for the one evening in the year. And in showing their appreciation for the honors thus bestowed the fathers very modestly admitted that the cakes and other good eats were as fine as mother used to make. The little tots of the school did themselves proudly with fine credit to themselves and with honor to their teacher and the San Carlos school. The entertainment was excellent and Mrs. Kunze, the primary teacher, is well deserving of the many compliments she received for her painstaking efforts in training the little ones. The past president of the parent-teacher association had arranged a pleasant surprise in having two entertaining and interesting speakers present, O. E. Nosler, who has the distinction of being president of the first fathers' school association in California, which is auxiliary to the parent-teacher association (composed of the mothers), at the Washington grammar school of Oakland, and C. E. Hulsteth, who is principal of the same school. Both of these gentlemen talked along the lines of the fathers' duties to the school, mort particularly about the interest they should manifest in our boys by arranging clean sports for them and also becoming one of them occasionally. They told what had already been accomplished along these lines at the Washington school through the good offices of the fathers' organization. Through the convincing talks of these gentlemen from Oakland the fathers of San Carlos were thoroughly converted to the idea that it is only through an organization of a society devoted expressly to the interests of the school and the boys that things worth while can be accomplished for our children. So immediately after the close of the entertainment and while the young folks went on with the dance, the fathers, through the leadership of Ansel C. Hulbert, a gray haired friend of the boys who has never learned how to grow up and become dignified, began to sign up as charter members. The organization was completed last Saturday evening with the adoption of by-laws and election of the following officers: Ansel C. Hulbert, president; R. D. Schoot, secretary, and R. L. Simpson, treasurer. These fellows have the distinction of having been elected to office in the one organization in San Carlos where a political slate was not made in advance. They come pretty close to being the natural man-boys to handle an organization of this kind devoted to the interests of our children. We should now feel assured that our boys and girls will soon be enjoying the bath house and the swimming hole for which Mrs. Quinn, the past president of the P. T. A., made such an eloquent appeal at the close of the exercises last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stelleck, who are of the Shriner delegation, crossed the desert sands from Portland, Ore., to California to find the most refreshing oasis at San Carlos, where they have pitched their tents and will be the guests of the popular butcher, A. J. Merta, and his family during the Shriners' jubilee. The Shellecks are old friends of Mr. Merta when he was a resident of Portland for many years.

At the croquet tournament between the members of the Taxpayers' League and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the organization, which was played on the courts of the league last Sunday afternoon, the ladies got the worst of it. The score stood 3 out of 5 in favor of the sterner sex. The ladies compiain of too much housework and but little time to practice. But they expect to try again in the near future.

Miss Happy Christian from Antioch is visiting at the home of her old school chum, Mrs. H. W. Mallory. Mrs. Mallory and Miss Christian were chums at the University of California Hospital.

The following new homes are in progress of construction or nearing completion: That of Jno. V. Clark, assessor of the sanitary district, at the corner of Ceda and Cherry; Andrew J. Johnson, chairman of the sanitary commission, on Chestnut near Cypress avenue; M. Gee, on Cherry near Chestnut, and W. J. Walters on the corner of Cypress and Chestnut.

Owing to the high price of water in these strenuous Volstead times, a number of people have already bored wells and installed Kewanee pumping plants or other independent systems and a good many others expect to dig wells in the very near future. Messrs. Towers and Buckley, who live on adjoining properties, will start boring twin wells immediately. Don't know if they are to be on the Siamese plan or not. These independent water plants as auxiliaries to the little San Carlos water system will make it possible for the residents here to maintain our beautiful "garden homes" of which we have talked and dreamed these many years. Since the railroad commission granted the increase in water rates a number of those not having individual water plants have found the "garden home" an expensive luxury.

The barbecue and picnic which was held here last Sunday week on the famous Arroyo avenue proved a howling success in the matter of big attendance and an abundance of good eats. Everybody went away satisfied and with the assurance that they would come again any time a committee wanted to dig up an abundance of good eats and provide them with the same kind of clean and wholesome entertainment. Most of us are a good deal like the minister's little daughter said of her reverend papa, "My papa don't practice, he just preaches," when it comes to going on committees and doing the hard work that goes with getting up picnics and entertainments of any kind. But we are all preaching for these get together affairs

Mrs. Fred Lippman returned home last Wednesday week from a week end visit with friends and relatives in Oakland and San Francisco.

NO NEED FOR WOMEN'S PARTY

The women's party have very small cause for complaint that President Harding decided to attend the dedication of their Washington headquarters. Their organization is admittedly political. Neither the Republican nor Democratic parties were good enough for them, so they formed a party of their own rather than affiliate with either of the other two. Doubtless the womens' party will have candidates in the field at the next election who will do their best to beat all their opponents. There was no more reason for a Republican president to attend the dedicatory ceremonies than for him to attend a Democratic powwow or a gathering of Socialists.

Instead of being present in person at their gathering President Harding sent the ladies a letter in which he rejoiced at the enfranchisement of the women of the United States and wished "that the larger opportunity for American womanhood will be marked by the highest ideals, lofty patriotism, noble inspirations and great good to our common country." Mr. Harding is president of all the people and his letter was suitable for reading at a gathering of any group of citizens.

MARRIED

Miss Edna Billesback and Charles Rockhold were united in wedlock on Sunday, May 29, by Father Kennedy of Mount Carmel. Dinner was served at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. John Leahy, after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs Rockhold went south on a honeymoon trip. The bride is a resident of Menlo Park, where she has numerous friends, while the groom is a resident of Los Altos, where he has many friends.

Mr and Mrs. Rockhold will make their future home in Palo Alto.

NOTICE

Frank L. Eksward, for six years representative of this county in the state legislature, this week announced his candidacy for re-election. Eksward has been a faithful servant to San Mateo county at all times and has fought for it many notable battles at the state capitol. He believes strongly in the movement to secure the establishment of a port in San Mateo county and in the last session of the assembly he introduced and secured the passage of a bill permitting the formation of districts for the development of harbor facilities in San Mateo county, although it was later vetoed by Governor William D. Stephens.

In announcing his candidacy for re-election Eksward states that if returned to the legislature this year he will continue to work for the best interests of the county as he has in the past and will gladly co-operate with any of his constituents in any movement for the progress and development of the county.

RISSO'S CAR WRECKED

Deputy Revenue Collector G. B. Risso had the odd experience of having a violator of the Volstead act crash into the rear of his car while it was parked on the county line near Daly City Monday night.

The driver of the touring car, formerly owned by Harry Wilkins, whose wife was recentl killed in a holdup by highway bandits, was arrested by a Daly City policeman on a charge of driving an auto while under the influence of liquor.

The evil influences which have apparently followed Wilkins appear to be still busy.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Sunday, June 18.

On Saturday, June 17, the church and Sunday school annual basket picnic will be held. Transportation will be provided for all the children. The picnic will be held at Alum Rock Park near San Jose. Please be at the church at 9 o'clock prompt.

Edwin Williman, a teacher in the Piedmont High School, has been selected as principal of the new high school at Pescadero. Mr. Williman is well known here, as he played second base for the Redwood City team while he was at Stanford. He worked at Menlo Park during his university career, so has many good friends in this vicinity. Mr. Williman is a thorough teacher, a good athlete and a fine young man, so will be an acquisition to our coast side city.

LEAF MOULD THIEVES

Giovanni Romano and Natalio Nierlo were arrested Tuesday morning on the La Honda road charged pith petty larceny for appropriating leaf mould from other people's property, which they admitted was to be sold for fertilizer, and also admitted taking 215 such sacks from near here.

G. E. Chiss made the arrest and Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin found them guilty after a plea for probation had been made and placed the penalty at $25 each.

BIG POWER
for BIG AUTOMOBILES

You selected your car carefully for quality. Select your motor fuel the same way. It's unfair to feed a good car an inferior gasoline.

"Red Crown" answers completely the automotive engineer's demand for a motor fuel that will vaporize rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor and explode cleanly in the cylinders. All the heat units it contains are converted into power at the drive wheels.

"Red Crown" is uniform in quality—every gallon is the same, wherever and whenever you buy it.

Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Service Stations, at garages, or other dealers.

Remember to try both switch button and key. If no light is obtained, call the nearest P G and E office or substation. We want you to have service. On occasions, our men have ridden five miles just to switch on the lights.

Shurtleff Campaigning

Judge C. A. Shurtleff left yesterday on a campaign trip to Calaveras county, where he is to address a big gathering of lawyers. From there he will journey through the San Joaquin valley, meetings friends and the voters. Then he will go to Los Angeles to address the bar association. Before returning the judge will attend the convention of district attorneys of the state at Placerville and give a talk to the meeting.

McDonnell Retires

James McDonnell, for over twenty years superintendent of the Macdonough stock farm at Portola, has resigned his position and taken up his residence in San Francisco. Probably no man in the state is better posted on race horses and the doings of the truf than he. Mr. McDonnell had charge of the famous stallion, Ormonde, when he was brought from England many years ago to the farm. The late William Macdonough paid the fabulous sum of $150,000 for the famous racer. A few colts, sired on the farm, won fame on the turf both in this country and in England. The remains of the grand old sire are buried on the farm. His last resting place is suitably marked by an imposing monument erected by the direction of Mr. McDonnell, who was a great admirer of Ormonde, who in his day had won the English Derby. In days gone by no gathering of noted horsemen at the Palace Hotel could be complete without the presence of Mr. McDonnell, whose advice and information were always sought by race horsemen. Mr. McDonnell will long be remembered by a coterie who followed the fortunes of the track in the years when racing was permitted in the state.

Hooray! School Is Out!

St. Joseph's parochial school closed yesterday for the summer vacation of three months. Appropriate exercises were held in the assembly hall of the institution. The parents of the children who saw the performance speak in glowing terms of the manner in which the young folks acquitted themselves, showing the results of their training and numerous rehearsals.

Get Ready to Hop

Those who miss the dance to be given under the auspices of the Native Daughters in Native Sons' Hall this evening are sure to forego an enjoyable time. A select orchestra will render catchy music for the big crowd that will be there. Come and have the time of your life.

Menlo Couple Married

On June 2 in San Francisco Miss Helen Strong, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Strong, was united in marirage to William Feeley, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Feeley of this place. The young couple are spending their honeymoon in Los Angeles, where they will reside. Mr. Feeley is to enter one of the vocational training schools in the south. He is an ex-service man, having put in two years as one of the boys of the fourth division of the regular army. Mr. Feeley participated in four battles of the war, winning a service detail as a sharpshooter. He had a splendid record in the army. Since his retirement he has been the chief gardener for Judge Shurtleff. The young couple have the best wishes of their Menlo Park friends for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Warren School Closes

More than 30 boys from the William Warren School will leave here today for the Santa Cruz mountains, where they will remain throughout the summer months on the newly acquired William Warren camp near Felton. William Warren, dean of the school, recently acquired 150 acres in the mountains, where he has established this camp, containing streams for excellent trout fishing. The camp will be under supervision of Major Vandervoort. The boys are to return to school in September.

Active in Convention

A convention of the Catholic students' mission crusade will be held in the Young Men's Institute Auditorium in San Francisco on June 22. Two big peninsula schools, Santa Clara University and St. Patrick's Seminary at Menlo Park, have been very active in the preparation of this affair, which will mark an epoch in the Catholic misison activities west of the Rockies.

The Catholic students' mission crusade is a national organization with its center at Cincinnati, Ohio, and Right Rev. Francis J. Beckmann and Rev. Frank A. Thill of the central executive board will come to San Francisco to preside at the convention. Schools from all the bay cities will take part in it.

Preceding the convention sessions a solemn mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco, at which the Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna will preside and preach. Then the students will go to the Y. M. I. Building, 50 Oak street, where the entire day will be given to serious discussion of ways and means of prospering the mission movement in the west and to an enthusiastic rally. It promises to be an interesting day.

Menlo News Notes

Mrs. Macondray Moore and Mrs. Thomas Breeze are leaving this week for Los Gatos to enjoy several weeks at Wake Robin Inn. Thomas Breeze arrived recently from an extended visit to the east and left yesterday for Alaska to prosecute some cases there.

Martin McCarthy is erecting a neat bungalow on his property on Oak Grove avenue. Weeden brothers have the contract and are rushing work on the structure. The bungalow will cost $6,000.

The S. Di Natale Company, which has been conducting the Duff & Doyle grocery since the retirement of the old firm, yesterday sold the business to W. D. Packwood of San Mateo. Mr. Packwood is an experienced groceryman, having recently sold his store at Danville, Contra Costa county. Since his early youth he has been engaged in the grocery business in various parts of the state. Mrs. Di Natale will remain in the store for some time to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rutherford ond Miss Louise Boyd have returned to their homes in Ross after having enjoyed a brief visit in Menlo Park. The trio were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCormick over the week end and were present at the al fresco supper they gave Saturday night. The McCormicks again entertained at an outdoor picnic Sunday, which was attended by much the same crowd as on the preceding day.

Mrs. Ernest Stent informally entertained friends Monday at an al fresco luncheon at her Menlo Park home.

More than 30 boxes have been sold for the benefit circus and horse show which will take place this afternoon at the A. G. C. Hahn field. Among the peninsula women who have recently made box reservations are the Mesdames J. Leroy Nickel, Henry Meyer, Ernst Stent, Charles Gardner Lathrop, Charles Merrill and R. E. Robbins.

The Seventh Avenue Riding School has arrived and is now located on the Pat Kearny property on Oak Grove avenue. New stables and commodious quarters. The best of saddle horses from San Francisco headquarters are here. Perry Davies, instructor, same as last season. The many pupils for the summer season will hail this school with delight.

C. W. Marwedel, a former resident of Menlo Park, has been granted a building permit to erect a home on the corner of Waverley and Coleridge streets, Palo Alto, at a cost of $24,000.

Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn and Mrs. C. Haywards entertained 135 friends at a delightful afternoontea at their hospitable home on Hopkins avenue Thursday afternoon. The guests were principally from Redwood City, but there were also a number from San Carlos and Palo Alto. Both Mrs. Kalenborn and Mrs. Haywards have rented their homes for the summer and on the 19th will motor to Medford, Ore., where Mr. Kalenborn is engaged on a large engineering project.

Woodside

The children of the First Congregational church of Redwood City held their annual picnic on Saturday last in Miss Tripp's redwood grove at the very foot of King's Mountain and facing what we call "the old back road."

I wonder how many of them realized the historical character of that road. For in the old days that road constituted the whole of Woodside and it was a very busy little village at that. Lining this road were the stores and blacksmith shops and a hotel and (hush!) places where one could get a drink, with music and dancing in the back room. And to this active little village stretched along the "old back road" came the lumbermen from the mountainside and from over the ridge—eight and ten miles away—to spend the week's end and incidentally the week's wages.

But like so many of our mining towns of the same era, this little lumber town has been swept away. Only the store built by Dr. Tripp at the corner of the roads still stands to bear mute witness to the life of those earlier days.

The pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Woodside school, on this same day, held a picnic on the James Huddart place, which had been kindly placed at their disposal. After a hike along the wood roads on the mountain's side they swam and rowed upon the lake. Then came a filling luncheon eaten on the lake's shore, and after that games were played upon the lawns until the time came when picnics must end. From expressions heard on the homeward journey the outing was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Auddiffred and Mrs. Gish furnished the automobiles for the transportation.

A movement is "on foot" to get together the residents of Woodside in an endeavor to develop a community pride in our roadways. We have some of the prettiest drives from Humboldt county to San Diego, but unfortunately many of the roadsides are marred by unsightly accumulations and growths. There is no desire to reduce our roadsides to the uniformity of city streets—such shrubs as the broom and the Christmas berry should be left, but the poison oak could be grubbed out to the benefit of all concerned (save, perhaps, the grubber) and unsightly weeds and accumulations should be removed. Let each property owner start on his own property line and co-operation will come and we may put up a more orderly and self-respecting appearance.

This is the time when the "part year" residents of Woodside are flocking to the summer nests. Larry Harris and his family are back and Mortimer Fleishhacker with his family, and Peter Pond with his, and A. H Audiffred with his wife and boy.

June 9, being the last day of the school term for the Woodside school, the lower grades had a picnic at the creek behind the school; the upper grades gave a program, largely musical, at the school building and afterward made themselves merry with French pastry and Eskimo pie.

Rev. Benjamin St. John preached to his congregation on Sunday from the text, "The opening of Thy Word bringeth wisdom," citing as proof thereof the lives of Booker Washington and "Brother Paul" of Louisiana. The Sunday school membership of this little church is in excess of 50 scholars, an encouraging showing for a church of its size and location.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

Exercising the prerogatives of the "restless sex" Mrs. Esther Takahama, white wife of a Japanese, filed suit for separate maintenance here last Saturday and declared two days later, according to news reports, that she was still faithful to her Oriental husband, and would probably drop the suit.

The couple were married in Philadelphia, once termed the "City of Brotherly Love." Following the eastern marriage in 1917, Mrs. Takahama was deserted in this county four years later, the complaint says.

She is employed in the home of Mrs. C. O. Hooker in Burlingame, while George I. Takahama, honorable defendant, is a house boy in the Burlingame home of Francis Carolan, well known and wealthy clubman.

Permanently Removing Spots by the F. Thomas Process

If spots come back after your clothes have been to the cleaners, they haven't been thoroughly cleaned.

Spots that appear in clothing caused by grease, food stains, etc., quickly collect dust and dirt. They can be permanently removed by the "F. Thomas Process" without injury to the fabric.

The "F. Thomas Process" is a highly developed, scientific method of cleaning by which we obtain the perfect work for which this establishment is noted.

Every drop of cleaning fluid that we use is carefully re-distilled in our plant. Special equipment that we have installed to properly handle this work represents an investment of thousands of dollars.

The cheap, "just as good" cleaner either washes your clothes in dirty gaosline, or scours his gasoline with strong sulphuric acid. It is dangerous to have your clothes cleaned in "acid" gasoline. It is economy in the long run to have your clothes cleaned by the "F. Thomas Process."
